The Collect of the Day

Father in heaven, who at the baptism of Jesus in the River Jordan proclaimed him your beloved Son and anointed him with the Holy Spirit: Grant that all who are baptized into his Name may keep the covenant they have made, and boldly confess him as Lord and Savior; who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

Old Testament, Genesis 1:1-5

In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters. Then God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

Psalm 29

Ascribe to the Lord, you gods, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.

Ascribe to the Lord the glory due his Name;
worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.

The voice of the Lord is upon the waters;
the God of glory thunders;
the Lord is upon the mighty waters.

The voice of the Lord is a powerful voice;
the voice of the Lord is a voice of splendor.

The voice of the Lord breaks the cedar trees;
the Lord breaks the cedars of Lebanon;

He makes Lebanon skip like a calf,
and Mount Hermon like a young wild ox.

The voice of the Lord splits the flames of fire;
the voice of the Lord shakes the wilderness;
the Lord shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

The voice of the Lord makes the oak trees writhe and strips the forests bare.

And in the temple of the Lord
all are crying, "Glory!"

10 The Lord sits enthroned above the flood;
the Lord sits enthroned as King for evermore.

The Lord shall give strength to his people;
the Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace.

The Epistle, Acts 19:1-7

While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul passed through the interior regions and came to Ephesus, where he found some disciples. He said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?" They replied, "No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit." Then he said, "Into what then were you baptized?" They answered, "Into John's baptism." Paul said, "John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people to believe in the one who was to come after him, that is, in Jesus." On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied— altogether there were about twelve of them.

The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark 1:4-11

Glory to you, Lord Christ

John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins. Now John was clothed with camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey. He proclaimed, "The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit."

In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased."

Announcements

Beginning on January 13, St. Barnabas will hold a mid-week Eucharist at noon on Wednesdays. All are welcome to join us either in-person or via Facebook Live each Wednesday to celebrate Holy Eucharist. As a result of this service, we will no longer hold Morning Prayer on Wednesdays.

As with all in-person services and events, face masks are required.

Thank you to everyone who donated to provide Christmas flowers this year! Thanks to your generosity, our church looked beautiful for the services. Sign-ups for flower donations for 2021 are located in the hallway outside of Ramsay Hall.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

This year, we invite you to join St. Barnabas along with the National Church in our Holding on to Hope journey. We hope that you were able to join us for one of our Cottage Meetings that were held to answer questions and discuss stewardship. If not, or if you have further questions, please reach out to Fr. Michael.

Please prayerfully consider your 2021 stewardship pledge, and do reach out to the church office if you have any questions. Pledge cards were sent via mail, and they are available in the Narthex on Sundays. We thank you for your continual support of our congregation and St. Barnabas's mission to be a beacon of hope and love in our community.

January and February Outreach Ministry: Acadiana Coalition on Homelessness and Housing (ARCH). All monies received thru the Brown Envelopes will go to this organization, to assist in housing the homeless during these cold winter months. St. Barnabas is a loving and generous church, and the Outreach Ministry looks forward to assisting this organization in its efforts with your help! Donations are accepted through Brown Envelopes or via PushPay by selecting the fund, "Monthly Outreach."

EYC will meet on Sundays for some socially distant socialization and prayer! Whoever wants to participate in-person can join us in the sanctuary (with masks and social distancing), and anyone who'd prefer to join virtually can do so via Zoom. We'll visit with each other and close our our time together with Compline. Contact Mrs. Etienna for Zoom info. etienna@saintbarnabas.us

The 2020 church directory is available for pickup in the Narthex. Please pick one up so that you have a listing and contact information for your fellow members. We plan to print a directory every other year, so if your photo or names are not listed, you will have the chance to get in the book in the future. Thank you all for your patience.
